

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Mrs. Harding At Lecture

Hears Address Given Under Auspices of Girl Scouts.

By EVELYN C. HUNT.

Mrs. Harding and Miss Harlan attended the lecture of Thornton Burgess at the Knickerbocker Theater yesterday afternoon. The lecture was given under the auspices of the District Girl Scout Council, Clayton, District Girl Scout Commissioner, introduced Mr. Burgess. Among those who, with their children, occupied boxes were Mrs. Ekenstam, Mrs. Joseph Bradley, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. Herbert Howard, Mrs. Charles Lindsay and Mrs. Walter Tuckerman.

President and Mrs. Harding will attend the drill to be given at Fort Myer this afternoon for the Army Relief, and Mrs. Harding has sent quantities of flowers to Fort Myer for the hop following the drill in the Administration Building. This drill will have many brilliant features never before shown. Among those expected to be present in addition to President and Mrs. Harding, will be Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge and many of the Cabinet members and their wives. All of the boxes have been sold.

The Vice President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge were the guests of honor at the annual dinner of the Congressional Club last evening. William E. Barton, the editor of the Congressionalist, was the speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Coolidge was the guest of honor yesterday at the luncheon given by Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh. Covers were laid for thirty-six. Among the guests were Lady Lee, Lady Borden, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. William M. Calder, Mrs. Sze, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins and Countess Szechenyi.

Mrs. Walsh will entertain at dinner on December 22 in honor of the Chinese Minister and Mrs. Sze. The former Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Oscar Strauss are staying at the Shoreham. Mrs. Hoover entertained Mrs. Strauss at tea yesterday.

Paul De Hevesy, of Budapest, the new representative of the Hungarian government, arrived in Washington yesterday and has taken an apartment at Wardman Park Hotel for the season.

MR. AND MRS. BRADLEY HOSTS AT DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley entertained at dinner last evening in honor of their week-end guests, Dr. and Mrs. Preston Pope Satterwhite and Mr. and Mrs. James Lowell Putnam, of New York. Their other guests were the Spanish Ambassador and Mrs. Riano, the Swedish Minister and Mrs. Axel F. Wallenberg, Senator Walter E. Edge, Mrs. Sarah Lee Phillips, Admiral de Bon, of the French delegation; Capt. Jean Rigal, Miss Patten, Mrs. Crotwell Brooks, Jonkheer W. H. de Beaufort, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, the former Ambassador to France and Mrs. William Graves Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Charles L. McCawley, Col. John G. Quakemeyer, Raymond Shipman, Count Constantin and Miss Isabel May.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley will leave for New York next Tuesday, where they will remain until December 27. A dinner Rumanian in every detail was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. George Julian Zolnay in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Elizabeth Zolnay. Their guests included Miss Rosa Maye Kendrick, Miss Mary Montgomery, Miss Mary Palmer, Miss Margaret Zolnay, Marcel Colas, Comdr. John Creighton, Comdr. Calvert Carey, Maj. Xenophon H. Price, Lieut. Henry McCown and Capt. Lemuel Shepherd. Following the dinner the guests were taken to the dance given by Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Price Wright entertained a company of ten, last evening at dinner, in honor of the Minister to Switzerland and Mrs. Feter.

MRS. THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR. Is an ardent lover of horses, and like her famous father-in-law takes a ride every day.

Hampson Gary, former Minister to Switzerland, and Mrs. Gary, entertained at luncheon at the New Willard yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller gave a dinner last evening in honor of the British delegation. Among the guests were Justice and Mrs. Louis D. Brandeis and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pinchot.

NEARLY THOUSAND GUESTS AT DINNER.

One of the most charming entertainments of the season given for any of the buds was the dance which Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper gave last evening at Rauscher's to present their niece, Miss Isabelle Crawford, to society. There were nearly 1,000 guests, including all of the season's debutantes and the younger set in society with a sprinkling of older people, representing the Diplomatic, official and residential sets. The ball room was attractively decorated with cedars and Southern smilax while the many flowers set the pretty and were artistically arranged amidst the Christmas greens.

Miss Crawford was a charming frock of rose point lace over white satin. The gown is made on simple lines, with the lace falling straight to the edge of the skirt and draping the bodice. The neck line is edged with rhinestones. She carried a bouquet sent by Mrs. Harding from the White House.

Mrs. Capper wore a white georgette, heavily encrusted with iridescent sequins.

She was assisted by Mrs. Harry New, Mrs. Joseph Frelinghuysen, Mrs. Frank Kellogg, Mrs. Ira Copley, Mrs. Charles C. McChord, Mrs. John Allan Dougherty, Mrs. E. P. Gann, Mrs. Joseph Hampson, Mrs.

Lay, Harry A. McBride and Hamilton C. Claiborne.

Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Julian Buckley at Genesee, N. Y.

H. G. Wells will leave the end of the week for a visit in Florida.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles L. Hussey will entertain at dinner this evening at the Army and Navy Club before the club dance.

The Minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and Madame Groultch were the honor guests at the dinner given last evening by Mrs. Charles W. Wetmore. Covers were laid for twelve.

Prince and Princess Michael Cantacuzene will arrive soon to spend the Christmas holidays with their grandmother, Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant. Their parents, Prince and Princess Cantacuzene are with Mrs. Grant.

Miss Rosalind Wright was hostess at luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Ingegerd Wallenberg, daughter of the Minister of Sweden and Mrs. Wallenberg. Miss Mary Wallace, daughter of the Secretary of Agriculture, was among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Noyes entertained at a dinner dance last evening at their home in Vermont avenue for their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Blagden. The guests numbered eighty-five.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hart, of New York, their son-in-law and daughter, arrived yesterday to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Noyes.

Mrs. Rudolph Kauffmann entertained at luncheon yesterday at "Arlene". Her guests were Mrs. Selden P. Spencer, Mrs. Joseph I. France, Mrs. S. B. M. Young, Mrs. Theodore W. Noyes, Mrs. Victor Kauffmann, Mrs. Dwight Chester, Mrs. Francis Berger Moran, Mrs. James E. Freeman, Mrs. E. B. Grandin, Mrs. Charles Denby and Mrs. Perry Heath.

The French delegation entertained at luncheon in the Fairfax room of the Willard yesterday for the members of the French delegation exclusively.

Col. and Mrs. Edgar Sirmeyer had as their guests at the dinner dance last evening, given by the officers stationed at the Washington Barracks at the Officers Club there, Gen. and Mrs. Willard Holbrook, Col. and Mrs. Thomas Q. Donaldson, Col. and Mrs. Frank C. Marshall, Col. and Mrs. George Mitchell, Col. Arthur Conklin and Charles McKnight, of Pittsburgh.

Lord Riddell will spend Sunday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Frank Samuels, who is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. George N. Porter, at their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel, will return to her home in Philadelphia tomorrow.

Dr. and Mrs. Poulet will go to Philadelphia at the end of next week to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Samuels.

Charles McKnight and his daughter, Miss McKnight, of Pittsburgh, who are stopping at the Shoreham, entertained at luncheon there yesterday.

Maj. Frank Touney entertained for Miss McKnight at the dinner dance last evening at the Washington Barracks.

Mrs. N. H. Wright, of Ironton, Ohio, who was to come to Washington yesterday to visit Mrs. George D. Hope at her apartment at Wardman Park Hotel, has had to postpone her visit because of illness.

Miss Mollie Churchill will return from Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn., on December 21, to be with her parents, Maj. and Mrs. Maribrough Churchill, at their apartment at the Willard. During the holidays, Miss Churchill will remain in Washington until January 12.

MISS MARGARET CROSSON HOSTESS TO BRIDAL PARTY.

Miss Margaret Crosson entertained at dinner last evening for Miss Marion Drain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Drain, and Clarence Hemphill, whose marriage took place this evening. Crosson's guests included the bridal party, Miss Gertrude Virginia Drain, Miss Virginia Brown, Robert Bunnell, of New York; Manley Stotson, of Pennsylvania; Capt. Curtis Beecher, and Mr. Hemphill. After the dinner the bridal party went to St. Thomas's Church, where they rehearsed for the wedding.

Mr. Hemphill entertained at a supper dance for the bridal party at Wardman Park Hotel, after the rehearsal.

Fred Kenehl Nielsen, solicitor for the Department of State, entertained last evening in the Diplomatic Suite of the New Willard Hotel, when his guests were Maj. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, the Chinese Minister, Sao Kuo Alfred See, the Persian Minister, Mirza Hussein Khan Adali, the Panamanian charge d'affaires, J. E. Lefevre, the Siamese charge d'affaires, Phra Sanpakitch, the Italian high commissioner, Francesco Quattrone, Sir Hubert Llewellyn Smith, of the British consular delegation; the counselor of the French Embassy, Prince de Bearn; H. W. Malkin, legal adviser to the British foreign office; the counselor of the Japanese Embassy, Sadao Saburi; Dr. Camp Stanley; Prof. S. Tachi, adviser to the Japanese conference delegation; W. C. Dennis, Prof. George G. Wilson, W. S. Penfield, and Charles R. Dean.

Mrs. George Mesta, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will be at home today.

Miss Teresa Crosson arrived in Washington on Wednesday. Miss Crosson has been in New York for the past five months. She will be the guest over the holidays of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Crosson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eric Fowler entertained a company of twelve at dinner last evening, after which the guests were taken to the dance of Senator and Mrs. Capper.

Mrs. Van Hagen was a luncheon hostess at the Shoreham yesterday.

Miss Alice Milburn, a debutante of next year, was hostess at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Miss Mary Stitt, debutante daughter of Surgeon General and Mrs. Edward R. Stitt. Mrs. William K. Ellis chaperoned the party.

There were fourteen guests, including Miss Annette Ashford, Miss Mary Emily Hamilton, Miss Virginia Fuller, Miss Betty Werner, Miss Eleanor Hill, Miss Joyce Huffman, Miss Catherine Wrenn, Miss Laura Lejeune, Miss Vivian Brown, Miss Francis Durr, Miss Charlotte Clarke, and Miss Julia Hume.

Prince Takagawa, head of the Japanese delegation, was host at dinner last night, entertaining a large and distinguished company in the ball room.

WILL ENTERTAIN FOR TWIN DAUGHTERS.

Mrs. George Edmund Foss will entertain at a dance on January 5 at the Congressional Club for her twin daughters, Miss Marcia and Miss Constance Foss, debutantes of this year.

Miss Esther McVann was a hostess yesterday at luncheon in compliment to Miss Margaret Treadwell, a debutante of this year. There were fifteen guests, including Princess Bertha Cantacuzene, Miss Mary Palmer, Miss Elizabeth Zolnay, Miss Rosa Maye Kendrick, Miss Catherine Mufson, Miss Catherine Buckholtz, Miss Marion Drain, Miss Dorothy Gowen, Miss Colder, Ruggles, Miss Nina Gore, Miss Dorothy Mondell, Miss Madeleine Ausim, Miss Josephine Bridget and Miss Mary Emily Hamilton.

Miss Laura Lejeune, debutante daughter of the commandant of the Marine Corps, and Mrs. Lejeune, entertained a company of ten of the season's debutantes at dinner last evening preceding the dance which Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper gave.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Van Woert, of New York, while in Washington are staying at the Shoreham.

Dr. and Mrs. John Crayke Simpson entertained a small company at dinner last evening, after which the guests were taken to the reception and dance given by Senator and Mrs. Capper.

Mrs. Wilton Lambert will entertain at tea this afternoon at the Shoreham.

THE MISSSES FOSS PRESENTED BY MOTHER.

Miss Marcia Foss and Miss Constance Foss, the charming twin daughters of former Representative Edmund Foss, were presented to society yesterday afternoon by their mother at a reception at their home in R street.

The debutantes wore pink and blue, their favorite colors, and both carried shower bouquets of pink roses. Miss Marcia's costume was of pink net and sequins, made with a moderate decollete and finished with a big tulle bow at the side.

Her sister, Miss Constance, wore a smart little frock of blue velvet and net. The bodice was of velvet and the skirt of net, with ostrich tips of blue and rose at the girdle.

Mrs. Foss wore cloth of gold, veiled in black net. She was assisted by Mrs. James Mann, Mrs. Ira Copley, Mrs. Mahlon Pitney, Mrs. H. H. Rousseau, Mrs. Walter Dempsey, Mrs. James Husted, Mrs. Samuel Winslow, Mrs. John Hemphill, Mrs. Perry Heath and Mrs. Charles G. Davies.

Her daughters were assisted by Princess Bertha Cantacuzene, Miss Helen Colbert, Miss Elizabeth Kemp, Miss Evelyn Wadsworth, Miss Nina Lejeune, Miss Mary Palmer, Miss Sidney Webb, Miss Gladys Chapman Smith, Miss Nancy Hoyt, Miss Eleanor Carroll Hill and Miss Laura Lejeune.

Maj. and Mrs. Walter Cline presented their daughter, Miss Florence Cline, to society at a tea yesterday afternoon at their apartment in the Kenesaw.

Miss Cline wore white satin and silver lace. Her frock was made with a close-fitting bodice and hoop skirt. The neck was cut with the popular "off-the-shoulder" line and the hoops fell over a longer underpetticoat of lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweethearts, roses, lilies of the valley and forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Cline wore black georgette and lace, made with a draped skirt and simple bodice.

She was assisted by Mrs. Hardy Page, Mrs. Charles Porterfield Light, Mrs. Waldo Potter, Mrs. Pernier Mix and Mrs. Robert Cline.

The debutante had assisting her, Miss Julia Hume, Miss Nina Lunn, Miss Mary Stitt, Miss Elizabeth Werner, Miss Atala Kimmell and Miss Corinne Stephens.

Following the tea, Mrs. Cline entertained at dinner the ladies assisting her and their husbands. Miss Cline had with her at dinner the debutantes assisting her and an equal number of men. After the dinner they went to the dance given by Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper for their niece, Miss Isabelle Crawford.

MISS RIPPY HONOR GUEST AT LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Samuel Burleigh Milton entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home in Eighteenth street yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Margaret Rippy, daughter of Representative and Mrs. James Campbell Cantrell, of Kentucky, whose engagement to Eldon Morrison, of Lexington, Ky., was announced recently. A number of the season's debutantes were present. Covers were laid for twelve. The color scheme was pink and the flowers and table decorations reflected the holiday season. Those present were: Miss Rippy, Miss Rebecca Dial, daughter of Senator Dial, Miss Peggy Sterling, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Sterling; Miss Elise Montgomery, Misses Margaret and Jaquelin Mansfield, daughters of Representative and Mrs. Mansfield, of Texas; Miss Agnes Arnold, Miss Marjorie Stinson, Miss Lillian Morgan, of Rockville; Miss Margaret Barnes, and Miss Virginia Robinson.

Independence Bell Chapter, D. A. R., held one of its most interesting meetings of the winter so far at the home of its treasurer, Mrs. Sallie

Mrs. George Mesta, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will be at home today.

Miss Teresa Crosson arrived in Washington on Wednesday. Miss Crosson has been in New York for the past five months. She will be the guest over the holidays of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Crosson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eric Fowler entertained a company of twelve at dinner last evening, after which the guests were taken to the dance of Senator and Mrs. Capper.

Mrs. Van Hagen was a luncheon hostess at the Shoreham yesterday.

Miss Alice Milburn, a debutante of next year, was hostess at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Miss Mary Stitt, debutante daughter of Surgeon General and Mrs. Edward R. Stitt. Mrs. William K. Ellis chaperoned the party.

There were fourteen guests, including Miss Annette Ashford, Miss Mary Emily Hamilton, Miss Virginia Fuller, Miss Betty Werner, Miss Eleanor Hill, Miss Joyce Huff-

Grant Gates, at 1431 Webster street northwest, on Thursday evening. While it was a regular meeting, the charming hostess gave it all the pleasures of a most delightful social function. Mrs. Henry, the recording secretary, read a paper, "A Bit of Pilgrim History," written by Mrs. Frances Towner. Another very interesting paper, written by Mrs. Gates, was read by the hostess entitled "Some Echoes from the Conference." Mrs. Samuel Burleigh Milton was given a rising vote of thanks for her successful card party recently. Mrs. Milton also contributed a group of songs for the musical program. The following delegates were elected to the State convention of chapters: Mrs. Henry Churchill Cook, regent; Mrs. Wheat, Mrs. Sparrow, Mrs. Milton, Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Aycock, alternates, Mrs. Marlow, Mrs. North, Mrs. Miller, Miss Mayher Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Doocy. Elaborate refreshments were served and the table decorations and service all partook of the spirit of the Yuletide. Each guest was presented with a novel calendar of the new year.

A service will be held at St. Alban's Cathedral, on Wisconsin avenue, at 5 o'clock this afternoon, this being the occasion of the birthday of His Majesty, the King of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, and at which a Te Deum will be sung. The minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and Mrs. Groultch, with the staff of the legation, will attend the service, which will be open to the public.

HARVARD ORCHESTRA WILL GIVE CONCERT.

The Harvard University orchestra, for the first time in many years, will give a concert December 27, at 4:30 p. m., at the New National. The local committee in charge consists of Lynch Luquer, Charles Warren, Walter E. Tuckerman, John W. Davidge, Franklin Elliot Myron Whitney, Edward A. Harriman, James O. Porter, George T. Weitzel, Henry G. Gibson and Charles T. Tittman.

The President and Mrs. Harding hope to attend the concert.

Mrs. Coolidge heads the list of patronesses. Boxes have been taken by Mrs. Frederic Gillett, Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss, Mrs. Lewis Prosser, Mrs. William R. Castle, Mrs. Margaret Churchill, Mrs. Frederick Atherton, Mrs. William Littauer and Mrs. Walter R. Tuckerman.

The South Carolina Society gave a dance last evening at the Washington Club. Among those on the receiving list were the president of the society, Col. Thomas Q. Donaldson, and Mrs. Donaldson, Senator and Mrs. Nathaniel A. Dial, Senator and Mrs. Ellison Smith and Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Calhoun.

Col. Frederick Palmer will address the National Club of University Women this evening, and will describe the armament conference from the newspaper correspondent's point of view. Col. Palmer will be introduced by Maj. John Stimson, commander of the Army Nurse Corps, who is chairman of the executive committee of the National Clubhouse.

MISS E. L. EASTERDAY BRIDE OF LIEUT. TRUITT.

Of widespread interest was the marriage of Miss Edith Isabel Easterday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson Easterday, at 8 o'clock Thursday evening to Lieut. Ira Walter Truitt, U. S. N., son of Isaac Henry Truitt, of Pittsville, Ind., at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Leitch, 1497 Thirty-first street, Georgetown. Rev. Dr. James L. Marshall, pastor of the Georgetown Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, was draped with similes, while tall vases of pink and white chrysanthemums were placed about the room. Tall palms formed a bank behind the bride.

The bride wore a gown of ivory charmeuse with a straight tunic of chiffon embroidered with white roses sprays of silver and bordered with pearls, made with tight basque tied at each side with sash ends embroidered with pearls and a train falling from the shoulders. Her tulle veil was held in place by a bandeau of pearls with clusters of orange blossoms at each side. She carried brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John S. Higgins, sister of the bride, and Mrs. William E. Shivers, of New Martinsville, W. Va., were the matrons of honor. Mrs. Higgins wore a gown of lavender georgette with appliqued velvet roses and a girle of silver cloth; while Mrs. Shivers, a bride of October, wore her wedding gown, which is of white.

Continued on Last Page, This Section.

J.M. Gidding & Co. Fifth Avenue, New York

PRACTICAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

—which will be offered on Monday at extraordinary reductions, will be repriced this morning, giving our patrons who visit this establishment today the benefit of these unusual values.

Evening Gowns and Wraps—Day Dresses—Coats—Suits—Blouses—Sweaters—Paris Novelties—Separate Skirts—Hats and Furs.

Rosemary Baskets

Filled with Delicious Candies, High-Grade Confections, Jams and Jellies

Price, $3.50, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00

ROSEMARY CANDY—created by a company that has achieved a high reputation for the quality of its work. Price, $1.00, 60c and 50c per pound.

Blackstone, 1401 H Street

Where to Buy Gifts

The advertising columns of The Washington Herald offer to holiday shoppers rich possibilities in the purchase of Christmas gifts. Announcements of good stores appear in The Herald. It is suggested that they be carefully read when a shopping trip is planned. Time will thus be saved in making purchases.

The Store of Practical Gifts LANSBURGH & BROTHER

STORE NEWS for Saturday, December 17, 1921.

A Sale of Daniel Green's "Comfy" Felt Slippers

Reduced to

$1.85

AN OPPORTUNITY THAT WILL INSTANTLY APPEAL TO EVERY WOMAN WHO HAS SLIPPERS ON HER GIFT LIST

This unexpected sale—coming right in the height of the Christmas season—includes Daniel Green's Ribbon and Pompon Trimmed Moccasins, Fur-trimmed Felt Juliettes and Hylo Felt Slippers, in practically all colors. You know that Daniel Green's Slippers are the best—and here are the three popular models—all at one price—$1.85.

Second Floor—Lansburgh & Brother

S. Hann Sons Company

THE BUSY CORNER PENN. AVENUE AT 8TH STREET

If You Want Gift Ideas Come to the Neckwear Store

—So many good values, new and interesting lines of neckwear clamor for attention, it is difficult to know which to give first place. However, here are some suggestions that may prove of value

Tam and Scarf Sets

—Of brushed wool, in colors, tan, heather, brown and peacock. $3.00 value. Special at—

$2.37

Angora Sport Scarfs

—In the popular widths for sport wear, in plaid and striped designs. At—

$2.95 and $3.95

Collar and Cuff Sets

—Of eyelet embroidery, in attractive designs, regularly $1.00. Very special, a set—

85c

Special Table of Brushed Wool Scarfs

—Where we are displaying a wonderful assortment of these scarfs in a variety of colors. Some have belts, others without.

These make ideal Christmas gifts for the outdoor girl. Choice. $3.95

—Brushed Wool Scarfs, some plain, straight style, with wide fringe; others with pocket. At—

$5.00 and $6.95

—Angora Sport Hats, strictly tailored, in plain and heather shades, each—

$5.50

—Large Tam and Scarf Sets, brushed wool, in combination colorings, including brown and tan, tan and orange, and others. A set—

$5.50

—Separate Tams of Angora and brushed wool, priced from—

75c to $1.98

Novelty Buttons

AND Shirt Sets Best Makes at Lower Prices

50c to $5.00

DREYFUSS BROS.

617-619 Pa. Ave. N.W. Open Evenings.

Kann's—Street Floor.